

The Heraldic Achievement of the Baron of Fulwood and Dirleton

The Much Hon. Baron Camilo Agasim-Pereira of Fulwood & Dirleton, CHA, Hon. Consul., NP
The Baron of Fulwood and Dirleton, Lord of Dirleton in The Kingdom of Scotland,
Feudal Lord of Colemere, Fulwood, Morpeth Castle,
Repton and of the Hundred of Gresley & Repton in the Kingdom of England.

Arms: Per chevron engrailed Azure and Argent, in chief between a fleur-de-lis and thistle slipped and leaved Or, a Magen David Argent, in base a fructed pear tree eradicated proper; the shield ensigned below the helmet with a chapeau Gules, doubled Ermine.

Crest: A lion sejant Or, armed and langued Gules, holding in the forepaws a mullet of six points Argent, inscribed there upon the words "The Lord is King" in Hebrew letter Sable. Wreath and Mantling: Azure and Argent. Mantle: Gules and Argent.

Motto: IPSA SCIENTIA POTESTAS EST (Knowledge is Power)

Registration: 03 of April 2003 The State Herald Office of South Africa. Registration (4/3/4/633). Published in the South Africa Government Gazette # on 11 of April, 2003 Volume 454 Number 24604 and also by Warrant for Letters Patent by Lord Lyon King of Arms on 18 of March 2005 Officially Recognising the armiger as Camilo Agasim-Pereira of Fulwood, Baron of Fulwood, in recognition of application dated of 21 of September 2000. Rendition of Arms by Neil Bromley